

POSTCARD

In 2003, Abousfian Abdelrazik was arrested in Sudan at the request of CSIS, and he was subsequently beaten and tortured. Eventually released and cleared of all suspicion, his many attempts to return home to Montreal have been blocked by Canadian officials.

In March, 2009 over 200 people joined together to buy a plane ticket home for Abousfian after it was announced that he would be issued travel documents if he had a paid itinerary. This promise was broken on April 3, 2009 just hours before his flight.

Section 6(l) of the Canadian Charter of rights and freedoms states that: "Every citizen of Canada has the right to enter, remain in and leave Canada." Mr Cannon, I urge you to respect Abousfian Abdelrazik's right to return to Canada and provide him the travel documents he requires without delay
