Dear Mr. Cannon,

I am outraged that Canada is continuing to violate the human rights of Abousifan Abdelrazik.

Like Maher Arar, Abdullah Almalki and others, Mr. Abdelrazik is the victim of a shameful collaboration between Canadian officials and overseas torturers. He is also the victim of political manoeuvring that kept him out of Canada and separated from his children for six years. Mr. Abdelrazik was finally able to return to Canada in June 2009.

Incredibly, your government is still making it impossible for Mr. Abdelrazik to live in peace with his family. Instead, you are imposing sanctions on Mr. Abdelrazik that prevent him from earning a living, holding a bank account, travelling or enjoying any sense of security. These sanctions – imposed under the United Nation’s appalling “1267 regime” - violate all principles of justice, destroying individual lives in pursuit of political goals.

I am writing to you in your capacity as Minister of Foreign Affairs of Canada to ask that you immediately:

- * lift sanctions from Mr. Abdelrazik (something the previous government did in the case of Mr. Liban Hussein);
- * contact all United Nations Security Council members to inform them that Mr. Abdelrazik’s removal from the 1267 list is a diplomatic priority for Canada; and
- * revoke the unconstitutional “Al Qaeda and Taliban Regulations” which implement the 1267 regime in Canada, thereby demonstrating Canada’s firm opposition to that regime.
